WHEREAS, The proper and efficient functioning of health care facilities depends daily on the maintenance of patient medical records; and,

WHEREAS, Those engaged in organizing and preserving medical records substantially contribute to health care research, consumer safety and health planning; and,

WHEREAS, The function performed by medical record administrators, technicians and practitioners is an indispensable service in the rendition of quality health care to South Dakota citizens:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of August 22nd, through August 28th, 1976, as in South Dakota, and urge all citizens to familiarize themselves with the importance of the often overlooked contribution medical records personnel make to the health care facilities in your community and to the high quality of care you can expect at such facilities. I further urge young people to explore the challenging and rewarding careers available in the medical records profession.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 18th day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Six
